TERM

Sea Turtle is located on Brighton Beach, at the south end of the St James, with direct access to the sand, and with uninterrupted views of the Caribbean Sea. Built in the 1960s this airy and spacious 3 bedroom, 3 bathroom, bungalow is set in a quarter of an acre of mature gardens but fully refurbished in November 2011. A 50 sqm sun deck (600 sqft) and a pool were added in November 2012. Situated in a quiet residential neighbourhood two miles north of the city and just south of St James the house feels very private and is ideal for groups or families wanting an private hassle free beach experience or for intimate honeymooning couples. The Master and second bedrooms are both en-suite. The Master has a California King-size Double bed and the second and third rooms can be configured as either King-size Double, Twin or three singles. There is a sofa bed in the lobby (snug) between the main lounge and kitchen which can share the family bathroom next to the third bedroom and, though designed to sleep 6, there are beds for up to 10 guests should this be required (on request and in exceptional circumstances). The house is child friendly and there is a baby cot/crib available if required. In addition to the kitchen, laundry, and the lobby, the living area comprises of an internal 18 x 28 lounge with giant TV, an external 30 x 12 covered dining area with seating
